

GRANTS FOR U.S. CITIZENS

WHAT IS THE FULBRIGHT-SCHUMAN PROGRAM?	The Fulbright-Schuman Program, financed by the U.S. Department of State and the Directorate-General for Education and Culture of the European Commission, awards grants to citizens of the U.S. and EU Member States to further understanding of the EU and to promote U.S.-EU relations. The Fulbright-Schuman Program is administered by the Commission for Educational Exchange between the U.S., Belgium and Luxembourg.
Areas of Interest	Grants are awarded to U.S. citizens to study, research or lecture at universities or institutions in EU Member States on the development of the EU, EU policies, and the U.S.-EU transatlantic agenda. Project proposals should focus on comparative perspectives on issues of common concern (either transatlantic or with reference to EU policy). Proposals may address topics such as internal and external security, peace keeping, the EU and NATO, justice and home affairs, finance, trade, human rights, agricultural and environmental policies, energy, asylum, human trafficking, development, and EU enlargement. This list of topics is indicative, not exhaustive. N.B. Areas of study must relate to EU competencies and not merely Europe or countries of Europe. See below for a new Fulbright-Schuman program for professionals in International Education.
Types of grants:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grants for Post-Doctoral Research or University Lecturing • Grants for Professionals in International Education • Grants for Pre-doctoral Research or Study
Grants for Post-Doctoral Research or University Lecturing or Pre-doctoral Research or students	Seventeen awards for U.S. academics and other professionals, including professionals in training (decision-makers, policy-makers, individuals in industry, the media, politics, academia, and public administration), for an average duration of 4 months will be made available for study, research or lecturing on the EU and its institutions, its internal and foreign policies, and the U.S.-EU global agenda. U.S. citizens are required to carry out their projects in at least two Member States of the EU. Candidates must have a minimum of two years of relevant experience beyond the Bachelor's degree. Grants are for a minimum of 3 months, maximum 1 academic year, with preference being given to projects of 4 months. Pre-doctoral awards are for one academic year. Grants are tenable in universities, independent research centers, vocational training or professional institutions. One award is offered annually for lecturing on transatlantic relations at the College of Europe in Brugge, Belgium. The College of Europe offers a Master's program in European affairs to a select group of graduates from European countries and other countries. Fluency in French is desirable, but not required.
Grants for Professionals in International Education	Grants are also available for professionals in international education administration from U.S. universities for research in the field of international higher education administration that would be mutually beneficial to both the institutions. Candidates are responsible for arranging their own placement and do not need to hold a PhD. Grants are for a minimum of 2 months and a maximum period of 4 months.
VALUE OF AWARD	A monthly stipend of the euro equivalent of $3,000, an allowance of $3,000 for travel and relocation costs, and health and accident insurance. The maximum grant to any one candidate is set at $30,000.
APPLICATION DEADLINES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Do you have a doctoral degree or comparable professional experience? Deadline: August 1. ➔ All information: www.iie.org/cies • No doctoral degree or limited professional experience? Deadline: LATE OCTOBER. ➔ www.iie.org For further information please consult: http://www.fulbrightschuman.eu http://ec.europa.eu/education/eu-usa/doc1913_en.htm

Please note that current or retired officials of Community institutions are not eligible to apply. Current EducationUSA or Fulbright Employees may not apply and must wait one year after terminating their employment before applying.

GRANTS FOR E.U. CITIZENS

WHAT IS THE FULBRIGHT-SCHUMAN PROGRAM?	The Fulbright-Schuman Program, financed by the U.S. Department of State and the Directorate-General for Education and Culture of the European Commission, awards grants to citizens of the U.S. and EU Member States to further understanding of the EU and to promote U.S.-EU relations. The Fulbright-Schuman Program is administered by the Commission for Educational Exchange between the U.S., Belgium and Luxembourg.
Areas of Interest	Grants are awarded to EU citizens to study, research or lecture at universities or institutions in the United States on the development of the EU, EU policies, and the U.S.-EU transatlantic agenda. Project proposals should focus on comparative perspectives on issues of common concern (either transatlantic or with reference to EU policy). Proposals may address topics such as internal and external security, peace keeping, the EU and NATO, justice and home affairs, finance, trade, human rights, agricultural and environmental policies, energy, asylum, human trafficking, development, and EU enlargement. This list of topics is indicative, not exhaustive. N.B. Areas of study must relate to EU competencies and not merely Europe or countries of Europe. See below for a new Fulbright-Schuman program for professionals in International Education.
Types of grants:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grants for Research or University Study • Grants for Professionals in International Education • EU Scholar in Residence Program
Grants for Post-Doctoral Research or University Lecturing or Pre-doctoral Research or students	Twenty-two awards will be made available for EU professionals, including professionals in training (decision-makers, policy-makers, individuals in industry, the media, politics, academia, and public administration) from any of the Member States for an average duration of 4 months to conduct pre-doctoral study, post-doctoral research or university lecturing in the United States at an accredited university, vocational training/professional institution providing training at the post-secondary level, or at an independent research center. Candidates must have significant academic or professional experience in at least 2 Member States of the EU, 2 years of relevant experience beyond the Bachelor's degree, and must be proficient in English. Grants are for a minimum period of 3 months, maximum 1 academic year, with preference being given to projects of 4 months' duration. Students without a PhD must stay for a minimum of 6 months.
Grants for Professionals in International Education	Grants are also available for professionals in international education administration from European universities for research in the field of international higher education administration that would be mutually beneficial to both the institutions. Candidates are responsible for arranging their own placement and do not need to hold a PhD. Grants are for a minimum of 2 months and a maximum period of 4 months.
EU Scholar in Residence program	At least three one-semester awards for post-doctoral lecturing on EU affairs at selected U.S. universities. Successful candidates will be placed in an appropriate institution. Detailed information on the U.S. universities requesting an EU Scholar-in-Residence is available in December of each year from the Fulbright Commission. Grants are for one semester or 3-4 months.
VALUE OF AWARD	A monthly stipend of $3,000, an allowance of $3,000 for travel and relocation costs, and health and accident insurance. The maximum grant to any one candidate is set at $30,000.
APPLICATION DEADLINES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preliminary Application Deadline: February 1 • Final Application Deadline: March 1 For further information please consult: http://www.fulbrightschuman.eu http://ec.europa.eu/education/eu-usa/doc1913_en.htm

Please note that current or retired officials of Community institutions are not eligible to apply. Current EducationUSA or Fulbright Employees may not apply and must wait one year after terminating their employment before applying.